DR. LOUIS LANDMAN, the Cincinnati optician, will be at the Hotel Windsor to-day.

REV. F. J. CREEK preached Sunday morning and evening at the Presbyterian Church in Sharpsburg.

LOGAN HOWARD has been employed as salesman by J. P. Giltner, to help sell the produce of his fine orchards.

MR. ASHLEY LASALLE, formerly of this city, now of Orlando, Florida, has recently set out a "pinery" and will raise pine-apples.

ASA MARTIN, the weather prophet, of Winchester, predicts a severe winter for Kentucky. He says the mercury will drop to twenty degrees below zero.

Saturday a picked nine from Paris gave the Newtown ball club its first defeat. The score was 14 to 3, and the game was played at a picnic near Centerville.

FOR SALE.—House and lot in the most desirable location in Paris—lot 66x110 feet—eight rooms, bath room, electric light, gas, cistern, etc. Apply to Lancaster & Northcott. (1t)

PARIS Classical Institute property, consisting of four acres of ground and building of thirty rooms for sale, or exchange or rent, as a whole or in subdivision. (10aug-1m) W. H. McMILLAN.

DENNIS CURTIS' team of horses hitched to a wagon of wheat took fright, Saturday, at a passing train and run away. They collided with one of the new lamp posts in front of the Court-house and broke the post loose from the side-walk.

HON. W. A. MORRIS, father of Dan Morris, of this city, was nominated Saturday by the Democrats of Robertson and Nicholas, for the office of Representative in the Kentucky Legislature. His majority was about six hundred.

The Winchester Democrat thinks that the pikes in Clark should be free and urges a vote on the question in November. The Democrat claims that much business which was formerly done in Winchester, now goes to Paris and Lexington on account of the free pikes in Bourbon and Fayette.

MR. W. A. HILL, JR., who has been the very capable local editor of the Paris Reporter for the past year has resigned his position and will locate in a Western city. Mr. Hill is a ready, graceful writer, and is familiar with every detail of newspaper work. These qualifications, together with energy, sobriety and health, should make him a valuable man for any paper. His Paris friends wish him continued success in new fields. The local work on the Reporter will hereafter be done by Mr. John Bosley and the mechanical department will be conducted by Mr. George N. Parris.

Reuben Cummins' Will Probated.

THE will of Reuben Cummins, dated July 4th, 1888, and witnessed by N. F. Smith and R. S. Wilmott, was probated yesterday. It bequeaths to the testator's wife, Mrs. Frances M. Cummins, a farm of 206 acres, his bank stock, household furniture, vehicles, stock, crop, implements, pictures, etc., to do with as she desires.

A codicil, dated June 15, 1892, witnessed by J. T. Hinton and J. W. Lucas, bequeaths to testator's brother, W. D. Cummins, of Missouri, the Wm. Current and J. F. Cantrell farms, containing 232 acres.

The land owned by his first wife, Sara B. Cummins, is bequeathed in fee simple to her heirs.

A gold watch and chain is bequeathed to testator's cousin, Prof. N. Frank Smith, of Cynthiana.

The residue of the estate is to be divided equally among Frances B. Cummins, W. D. Cummins and testator's namesake, Reuben Cummins Cantrell.

The will directs that a $1,500 monument be erected on the family lot at Jacksonville cemetery.

Frances B. Cummins and Claude Cantrell are appointed executors.

A Carnival of Crime.

BURGLARS and footpads plied their vocation in a daring manner Saturday night in Paris.

At half past eight o'clock as Mrs. Hugh Montgomery and sister, Miss Emma Scott, were walking along Fifth street, a man jumped out of the yard of the Hickman property, in rear of Odd Fellows Hall, struck Mrs. Montgomery on the head with his fist, then grabbed her pocket book and escaped with it. The purse contained $3.50.

Attorney R. C. Talbott and Dr. H. H. Roberts, who were standing in front of the latter's residence, nearly a block from the scene of the robbery, heard the ladies scream but did not know the cause. Dr. Roberts ran into his office and got his pistol, and saw a man running in front of the Second Presbyterian Church and turn down Sixth street. Dr. Roberts, at the risk of being shot by the footpad, pursued the man to Main street and could have shot him had not there been danger of shooting persons standing on the corners of Main and Sixth street. Dr. Roberts called to the crowd to stop the man, but the robber passed through the crowd, and ran to High street, escaping detection. Parties who saw the footpad believe he was a white with his face blacked.

On Fifth street, near Main, the scene of the above robbery, at half past ten, two negro men attempted to hold up Ben Bishop, the well known plumber, and Ben clinched with one of the fellows and fell with him. During the struggle to get loose, the robber bit Ben on the left cheek, and when he freed himself he ran away to join his companion who had escaped when Bishop showed fight. The footpad failed to secure anything from Bishop.

Burglars entered the home of John Henry Ross, on Seventh street, near the Bourbon Laundry, and stole $32 and a match safe from his trousers. Ross is a colored waiter at the Hotel Windsor.

The same night burglars visited the residence of H. O. James, on Pleasant street, between Third and Fourth, stole Mr. James' shoes, socks and garters. Mrs. James' diamonds were in the room which the robber entered but he was frightened away before he could secure anything else.

Parks Hill Camp Meeting.

THE attendance at the Parks Hill camp meeting Sunday was not up to average "first Sunday," but the meeting is an enjoyable one. Rev. Dr. Bolling is preaching excellent sermons and a choir of well selected musicians is making sweet music.

The L. & N. will sell tickets at reduced rates every day during the meeting.

Trains will leave Paris, daily, for Parks' Hall, as follows: 7:45 a. m., 5:50 and 6:30 p. m. On Sunday—leave Paris at 8:30 a. m., 12:30 p. m. and 6:15 p. m. Returning leave Parks Hill at 9 p. m.

THE NEWS is requested to state that the Women's Society of the Christian Church will meet to-morrow afternoon at half-past three o'clock in the basement of the Church.

WHEEL NOTES.

Lines About Devotees Of The Wheel, At Home And Elsewhere.

Daugherty Bros. have sold a Phoenix wheel to Frank Donaldson.

W. B. Crenshaw, Claude C. Coffee and M. Nicholson, three Knoxville cyclists, were in the city Friday.

S. King and W. W. Altersall, of Mt Sterling, were in the city Sunday, en route to Blue Licks on their bicycles.

Tom Wallace, a Shelbyville wheelman, passed through Paris Sunday on a double century run from Shelbyville to Blue Lick Springs.

Ed H. Croninger and Clarence M. Roberts, nominated at Cynthiana for Chief Consul and Secretary-Treasurer of the Kentucky L. A. W., have withdrawn.

Alexander Verner Schlegel, a ten-year-old boy at Richmond, has received the $2,000 bequeathed by the late A. D. ("Pap") Ruff, his name sake and Godfather. Ruff was the veteran wheelman of Owingsville, who also left $1,000 to the Kentucky L. A. W. to be used to erect a drinking fountain on some Kentucky turnpike frequented by cyclists. It should be placed on the Maysville and Lexington pike, somewhere between Paris and Blue Licks.

Fifteen thousand people saw the national bicycle races run Friday at Philadelphia. Fred Longhead, the Canadian, won the honors of the day by winning the one-fourth and one mile national championships. Young Middendorff, the Louisville amateur, finished third in the one mile open amateur contest. The closing day's races were witnessed by more than 25,000 people. Earl Kiser won the great bicycle event of the year, the one mile professional open to the world. Bald was second by "a hair."

OBITUARY.

Respectfully Dedicated To The Memory Of The Dead.

Mrs. Elizabeth Nunn, aged eighty-one years, died Saturday night in Cynthiana, at the home of T. H. Johns, where she was boarding. The deceased was a sister of the late Dr. Noah Moore, of near Paris, and was the widow of Wm. Nunn, of Millersburg. She is survived by one child—Rev. H. A. M. Henderson, of Cincinnati. The remains were interred at 4:30 yesterday afternoon at the Millersburg cemetery.

At noon Friday Major John Buckner Holladay, aged sixty-five years, died after a lingering illness of heart disease at his home on High Street. He was a son of Thomas Holladay, a former proprietor of Blue Lick Springs, and was a soldier in the Mexican war and a gallant ex-Confederate. He was once a member of the Legislature from Nicholas, once Sheriff of the county, twice Sheriff of Bourbon, twice Mayor of Paris, and was in the revenue service at the time of his death. Major Holladay was a brave soldier, a courteous official, an amiable and popular citizen and a kind husband and father. He is survived by his wife and four children—Bruce, Lottie, Katie, Mamie and Bessie Holladay. The funeral occurred Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, the services being by Rev. F. W. Eberhardt. Burial at the Paris cemetery. The pall-bearers were Jas. R. Rogers, J. M. Hughes, W. L. Yerkes, F. R. Armstrong, Chas. Stephens, Warren Rogers, W. W. Mitchell, R. G. Stoner.

New Goods at Old Prices.

At 12 o'clock on the night of July 28th the Dingley Tariff Bill took effect, and all the imported Dry Goods, Hosiery, Gloves and Notions will be advanced in price by the importers and manufacturers to double what they were under the Wilson Bill. Anticipating this, I bought my Fall and Winter Silks, Woolens and Silk and Wool-Mixed Dress Goods, and have all the new weaves of Drap d'Etoes, Coverts, Moscoviettas, Armour Weaves, etc., now in store, all of which will, as long as any of them last, be sold at the old low prices, but when these are gone there will be no more to be purchased in the market at low prices. Everything affected by the new tariff will advance in first hands and we retailers will be compelled to go with the procession, whether agreeable or not. If you will come to my store now you can make a selection of a nice dress cheap, but if you postpone your call, in a short time your present stock will be sold out and you will be left.

Remember the latest styles and best qualities of goods can always be found at
